

BMM Award 2015 – FAQ

Q. I would like to apply for the BMM award, but I am not sure if our Mandal President knows my skill set?

A. No worries. You must send your nomination/application to Mandal President and your Mandal President will send (forward) that nomination/application to BMM without making any changes to it.

Q. Do our Mandal President has to add any recommendation letter for my nomination (application)?

A. No, Mandal President has to only forward the nomination/application that he/she receives from their members. We are not expecting Mandal President to send additional "recommendation letter" or anything with any nomination/application. We would like to make Mandal President's job easier.

Q. Can I apply to more than one category?

A. Yes, you can. This means you are doing exceptional in more than one field.

Q. Is there any limit for Mandal President to send nominations?

A. There is no limit and Mandal President must send all the applications that he/she is receiving.

Q. Can Mandal President nominate two people for same category?

A. Yes, Mandal President can send as much entries for the same category.

Q. What is the definition of "Youth" for the 'Achievements by Youth' category award?

A. We are flexible with this term, but we are expecting that the applicant is between 15-25 years.

Q. Why Mandal President has to forward my application to BMM, why can't I send my application to BMM directly?

A. We have added this step so that Mandal President can confirm if the person sending the nomination/application is member of the Mandal (Please take membership of your Mandal before sending your nomination/application to BMM).
